RECTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Members of the Graduating Class of 1995,

As a new graduate of Concordia University, you will experience many challenges and opportunities in the upcoming years. I am confident that your experiences at the University, both academic and otherwise, have prepared you well to meet these challenges and to play a meaningful role in helping our society move forward.

The faculty and staff of Concordia University are proud of you, our graduates. We respect the commitment that you have made in pursuing and completing this stage of your education. We appreciate the contribution you have made to the entire Concordia community during your years at the University. Although you are graduating and may be leaving University at this time, you will always remain part of the Concordia family and we look forward to a continuing relationship over the years ahead.

On behalf of the entire Concordia University community, I wish each of you every success in your future endeavors.

This year's Homecoming was quite successful with over 2,000 people participating in the various events, including over 100 guests at the Rector's Dinner. People came as far as the Maritimes, Vancouver, and the Dominican Republic. Special guest speaker, Dr. David Suzuki, spoke on behalf of the 20th anniversary in conjunction with the Open House. The only sour note was that Concordia lost the Shrine Bowl to McGill by one point. Oh well, there's always next year, Stingers!

Concordia Shuffle V

The Shuffle was held on September 30, 1994 with approximately 400 participants supported by Alumni, Faculty & Staff. The entire event was kicked off by Terry & Ted from Mix 96. This year we received a total pledge of $34,392 which was about the same as last year. The money raised goes towards 8 undergraduate scholarships and 7 bursaries.

In Memoriam

On January 30, 1995, longtime Office of the Registrar employee Mary Tarlton died at the Queen Elizabeth Hospital. A family spokesman said her death resulted from complications related to streptococcus A, a common bacterium that can be life threatening certain cases.

A graduate of Concordia, BA '79, Mary Tarlton joined what was then Sir George Williams University in 1963 as a secretary in the Records Office. As she worked her way through the ranks she became a mainstay of Concordia's Registrar's Office.

She held numerous administrative positions. From 1978 to 1994 she was Director of Registration and Scheduling on the Loyola and Sir George Williams Campuses. At the time of her death she was Supervisor of Records Operations.

Mary Tarlton, 49, is survived by her husband, Bernard Rees, her daughter Daniela Alexandra, and her stepson Owen.

It was an absolutely phenomenal year for the Concordia men's basketball team, which finished No. 2 in Canada. Perhaps the most exciting event was the Canadian Interuniversity Athletic Union Final Eight Championship held March 17 to 19 at the Metro Centre in Halifax, N.S. For it was there that the Stingers captured the respect and hearts of many Canadians. The Stingers arrived in Halifax ranked seventh out of eight teams and knocked off two giants — the No. 2 ranked University of Victoria Vikings 79-75 in the opening round and the No. 3 ranked University of Toronto Blues 75-65 in the semifinal. The semifinal and the final, which featured Concordia and the University of Alberta Golden Bears, were televised coast to coast by The Sports Network (TSN). The Stingers put up a valiant effort but were unable to keep up with the Golden Bears and lost 81-66.

Forwards Jean Pierre Reimer and Maxime Bouchard were named to the Final Eight all-star team, while the night before the tournament started guard Emerson Thomas was named a second team All-Canadian at the CIAU's annual men's basketball awards night. It was just one of many awards that Thomas earned. The most prestigious honor came two weeks after the nationals on April 3, when Thomas was declared a finalist for the Howard Mackie Award, which is presented to the outstanding male and female athletes in the CIAU, and was fêted in Calgary, along with nine other university athletes who were judged to be the best in Canada.

Thomas was then named Concordia's Male Athlete of the Year at the Department of Recreation and Athletics Varsity Awards Night, held April 6. He was also his team's MVP, the QSSF MVP and a QSSF all-star. He was joined on the QSSF first all-star team by forwards Gaetan Prosper and Bouchard. Reimer was named to the second all-star team.

As a team, the Stingers were 11-1 in the QSSF and 24-3 against Canadian university teams.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The defending champion Concordia Stingers women's basketball team finished third in the Quebec Student Sports Federation conference with a 6-6 win-loss record. Unfortunately, the team had to relinquish its title when it couldn't get out of its division in the play-offs. The Stingers suffered a disappointing 60-51 loss to the Université Laval Rouge et Or in the sudden death semifinal game.

There were, however, many highlights during the season. The Stingers enjoyed great success on the tournament circuit. In mid-November, the Stingers reached the final of their own prestigious Saxon Classic Tournament. Their only loss came in the championship game to the Winnipeg Wesmen, who went on to win the Canadian Interuniversity Athletic Union crown. The Stingers also won the Martlet Invitational Basketball Tournament held at McGill in January.

Overall, the Stingers posted a 17-15 record.

There were also individual successes. Concordia took three of the five spots on the QSSF first all-star team. Fifth-year guard Sharon Sandy, second-year forward Eva Samoré and third-year forward Patricia Demers were the all-stars. Sandy was also named MVP of the women's team, while forward Marie-Hélène Héroux was the outstanding rookie.

As individuals and as a team this is a very accomplished group of people. As a team, the Concordia Stingers, who did not play in a women's hockey league, choosing instead to play an independent schedule against the best teams in North America, posted a 29-5-3 record and won several tournaments, including their own Theresa Humes Women's Hockey Invitational, which is considered the top women's competition in North America.

Eight members of the Stingers are involved with provincial, national and Olympic programs. Assistant coaches Julie Healy and Caroline Blanchet, and forwards Nancy Deschamps, Anne Rodrigue and Martine Bérubé were gold medalists at the Canada Winter Games. All of the aforementioned except Coach Blanchet were also members of the national team which won the Pacific Rim championship in San Jose, Calif., in April. They beat out the U.S. national team, which featured Stinger forwards Karyn Bye and Cammi Granato. Concordia's Beth Beagan was also supposed to represent the U.S. but missed the tournament due to an injury.

Granato, who is considered one of the top five women's hockey players in the world, was named Concordia's Female Athlete of the Year at the Department of Recreation and Athletics Varsity Awards Night, which was held April 6. Also, forward Kari Colpitts was named Concordia's Female Rookie of the Year.

MEN'S HOCKEY

The Concordia Stinger men's hockey team posted an 11-9-4 record and finished third in the Ontario University Athletic Association's Far East Division. The Stingers then lost 3-1 in the division semifinal to the McGill Redmen.

The highlight of the season had to be a 15-day tour of the Czech and Slovak republics during December and early January. It was the experience of a lifetime for many of the players who enjoyed touring the spectacular countryside and bigger cities like Prague. The team also played six games, including a couple on outdoor rinks. Concordia won five of its games.

Goaltender Christian Dutil was named Concordia's Male Rookie of the Year at the Department of Recreation and Athletics Varsity Awards Night. Captain Daniel Picard was named the hockey team's MVP. Earlier in the season, defensemen Michael Pohorly and Eric Rochette were named Academic All-Canadians by the Canadian Interuniversity Athletic Union.

The 1994 season was both disappointing and rewarding for the Concordia Stinger football team. The team posted a 4-3 win-loss record and then suffered a heartbreaking loss to the McGill Redmen in the Ontario-Quebec Intercollegiate Football Conference semifinal. The Stingers lost 21-17 when their cross-town rivals scored to win in the last minute of play.

On the bright side, the Stingers set a Concordia attendance record when about 7,000 boisterous fans showed up to watch the Shrine Bowl between the Stingers and the Redmen on Oct. 15. The Stingers also had two football games televised by TSN.

There were also many individual honors. For the first time in school history and for the first time in 10 years in the O-QIFC, a local player was drafted by a National Football League team. Stinger cornerback Mark Montreuil was chosen in the seventh round (237th overall) by the American Football Conference champion San Diego Chargers on April 23. Montreuil was also selected by the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League at its college draft held in March. Offensive lineman Mike Simoncic and defensive lineman Danny Lavallee were also selected, both by the Ottawa Rough Riders.

The Stingers can boast of two All-Canadian honors. Safety Marc Fortier and linebacker Luc Pelland are among the best in Canada. Pelland was also a finalist for defensive player of the year in Canada. The Stingers also had five players named to the O-QIFC all-star team. They are: slotback André Bolduc, kicker Dimitrios Manolopoulos, Fortier, Lavallee and Pelland.

At the annual awards banquet, Bolduc was named the Stingers MVP, while receiver Martin Anderson was named rookie of the year.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

This was also a transition year for the Concordia women's soccer team. Sylvia Franz took over the reigns of the Stingers and brought with her many new approaches and strategies. While there were some rough spots, the Stingers finished the season strong. Their record was 1-4-3. The fourth-place Stingers split their two-game playoff series with McGill but were eliminated by a complicated goals-against formula.

The team had six of its players named to the Canadian Interuniversity Athletic Union All-Canadian academic team.

SOCCER

MEN'S SOCCER

It looked like a very promising season for the Concordia men's soccer team, especially with Pat Harrington being named head coach of the team. Harrington's credentials were impeccable. He is the goalie with the Montreal Impact, had played professional soccer in Europe and the list goes on. But Harrington was so good, his Impact won their league championship and monopolized his time. Then he was offered a contract to play soccer in the United States and had to resign. Assistants Grant Needham and Chris Rose took over, however, the lack of continuity hurt. The Stingers posted at 3-4-3 record, but were edged out of the playoffs.

Peter Panagopoulos was named to the Quebec Student Sports Federation second all-star team, while Tony D'Addario and Ron Eliakim were named Stinger MVP and rookie of the year, respectively.

Missing: Peter Panagopoulos, Jasminder Jakhar, Claudio Durante

MEN'S RUGBY

With rookie head coach Louis Aguirre assuming control of the Concordia men's team, it was a year of transition. The Stingers posted a respectable 3-5 win-loss record in the regular season, while learning their new coach's systems and strategies. The team put up a fine struggle in its semifinal game with McGill before losing 16-12 in the league semifinal.

Chris Papadopoulos was the only Stinger named to the all-star team. He was also named the Stingers MVP, while Alfredo Demartino was the squad's rookie of the year.

WOMEN'S RUGBY

Year after year the Concordia women's rugby team is expected to go out and bring home another championship. And this year, the Stingers lived up to everyone's lofty expectations once again. Under the guidance of head coach Tom Ingerman and assistant Chris Regimbal, the team racked up eight wins and a tie during the regular season. The Stingers then disposed of MAC and McGill in the semifinals and championship, respectively. It was the team's third straight championship. In the four years the team has had varsity status, it has lost only one game. The Stingers' record is now up to 38-1-2.

Kim Poirier was named rookie of the year by the Stingers and Sheila Turner was the Stingers MVP. Eight Stingers earned all-star status. They are: Anne Coyle, Lara Falquero, Dia Hurtubise, Laura Morrison, Tara Neal, Kim Poirier, Margaret Thompson and Sheila Turner.

TRACK AND FIELD

The greatest achievement from this group of athletes comes in the classroom rather than on the mat. Jason Della Rocca was named the best male student-athlete in Quebec by the Quebec Student Sports Federation last fall. He was sent to represent the province at a special awards ceremony for Academic All-Canadians in Toronto in the fall. The accounting major is on target to repeat his success since he posted a perfect 4.3 grade-point average in the first semester.

Coach Victor Zilberman's six-man team finished 10th in Canada and sent three wrestlers to the national championships in Calgary. But it was a tough year, as the team was shut out of the medals.

The team's rookie of the year is Jordan Dimitrov, while David Wilson is the MVP.

There were some highs and lows for the Concordia women's volleyball team last season. The team was in tough against the three other volleyball squads in the much-improved Quebec conference. However, on the tournament circuit the Stingers faired quite well. The team was 2-0 at an Ottawa tournament in September and then came home to host the very successful Concordia tournament, where the Stingers finished the round robin in third place out of six teams before losing in the bronze medal game. They also won the consolation title at the McGill tournament.

Individually, Cassandra Bardo was named to some tournament all-star teams, while Nathalie Müller was the team's MVP and Chantal Jung was the outstanding rookie.

Missing: Lara Penno

These men's and women's teams have made great advances again this season, its second of operation. The guiding force behind the team's growing success is coach Suzan Ballmer. Under her direction, there were more personal bests and more medals than last season. Some individuals even took home medals at the provincial championships. It will be just a matter of time before these athletes start getting a national reputation.

The MVPs are as follows: Leslie Heller, men's track and field; Elfrida Taylor, women's track and field; Mark Collins, men's cross-country; Lara Penno, women's cross-country.

The outstanding rookies are: David Dennick, men's cross-country; Christina Weiss, women's cross-country; David Peters men's track and field; Shelly Flaro, women's track and field.

Student Protest

On January 25th, 1995 approximately 500 Concordia Students marched in protest against Lloyd Axworthy's proposal to deregulate education. The proposal would open the door for schools to hike up tuition causing students to spend years paying off loans. Students throughout Montreal and Canada joined in the protest sending a strong message to Ottawa.

Hall Lobby Displays

Along with the Mezzanine displays, there are also ones throughout the year in the lobby of the Hall Building. Here is just a sampling of what you'll have seen.

TROPICAL MADNESS

On November 6, 10-13, 1994 the Theatre students in the Faculty of Fine Arts put on a dazzling show in the F.C. Smith Auditorium. The playwright, Stanislaw Witkiwicz, is one of Poland's outstanding visionary artists, but he is still relatively unknown in North America. Witkiwicz considers his playscript as a "springboard" for creative artists. Concordia feels honoured to have had the opportunity to present one of his early plays in a Quebec premiere.

Chesapeake Bridge (Oregon)
Golden Gate Bridge (San Francisco)
Jacques Cartier Bridge (Montreal)
Manhattan Bridge (New York)
Rainbow Bridge (California)
Three Sisters Bridge (Washington, D.C.)

The 11th annual Bridge Building Contest drew 44 engineering teams from all over Quebec and Ontario. Again, the star of the event was the Crusher (a hydraulic press capable of generating up to 1500 pounds of pressure), which tested the staying power of bridges built from popsicle sticks, dental floss, and Elmer's Glue. This year's winners were: École de Technologie Supérieure ($1000 "Dupont et Dupont"), ETS ($750 "Les Pantoniars"), Lakehead University ($500 "Group Therapy", ETS ($250 "Goulots"), and Western University ($100 "London Bridge").

Teams had to build a robot which met size and weight restrictions, and couldn't use projectiles or other possibly dangerous means of taking out the competition. The winner was "Out-to-Lunch Box", built by father-and-son team, Richard and Charles Allix.

Say Goodbye to...

Concordia University closed its Loyola Campus Langley Hall Residence on Sherbrooke Street West on June 1, 1995. The University also studied the future of its other Loyola Campus residence, Hingston Hall. However, Hingston Hall will definitely remain open until at least May 1996.

Opened during Expo '67 and used as a women's residence until the 70s, Langley Hall accommodated 104 students. Hingston Hall housed 144. An initial study carried out by Concordia University this year indicated that expensive renovations were urgently needed to upgrade the Langley Hall Building. After a thorough examination of the matter, the Office of the Rector decided that Concordia could not assume the cost of such an undertaking.

Besides the projected renovations costs, the Langley Hall Residence facility is expensive to maintain and the operation of the residence consistently loses money. Also, since Concordia is an urban university with accessibility to low-cost, off-campus housing for its students. Given the current economic situation, it was decided that the university could no longer justify major spending on residence repairs.

The fate of the Guadagni Lounge, a favourite student spot on the Loyola Campus, hung in the balance for about six months this year. Due to a grave need for office space, the university planned to relocate the Guadagni Lounge to the basement of the Central Building. Fortunately the cost of renovation for the offices was so high that the Guadagni will stay as is - forever, we hope!!

CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

CHEERS! ... TO A LIFE-LONG ASSOCIATION

Your affiliation with Concordia University continues well after Convocation. In fact, graduation signifies that all-important time in one's life when the title of student is exchanged for that of alumnus/a and member of the Concordia University Alumni Association.

The Concordia University Alumni Association creates a link between you and your alma mater. It offers alumni the opportunity to participate in a variety of educational and cultural programmes, to socialize with other graduates, and to rekindle old friendships.

If you would like more information about the Concordia University Alumni Association, its activities, benefits and services, please contact us:

GOOD HEALTH, A BIRTHRIGHT THAT HAS TO BE SAFEGUARDED ... BY PEOPLE LIKE US.

We are Phoenix International Life Sciences Inc., based in Montreal, one of the fastest growing most widely respected pharmaceutical contract research organizations in the world.

Phoenix complies with the strictest regulatory procedures, and adheres to the highest code of ethics, as ensured by an independent Institutional Review Board. Phoenix believes that quality must be "built in" as a result of conscientious attitudes, management philosophy and work-place methodology.

We have forged strong links with over 40 universities and medical centres throughout North America; Université de Montréal, McGill, Université de Sherbrooke, University of Toronto, University of Western Ontario, Dalhousie, McMaster, UCLA, Harvard, University of Minnesota, and the Mayo Clinic.

Working with over 100 pharmaceutical companies worldwide, Phoenix has designed, conducted and reported studies on over 200 different drugs in almost every therapeutic category. We have generated over 1000 reports, publications and presentations.

Phoenix routinely recruits healthy male and female volunteers to participate in clinical trials. If you would like to assist the research industry and earn some money or if you would simply like more information about our clinical trials, please contact us.

The list seems endless. In fact, a child's chances for a long and healthy life were once quite low. Thanks partly to progress in medicine, the odds have improved greatly.

And now, strengthened by the law encouraging pharmaceutical research in Canada, Merck Frosst will double its commitment to science. And more than double our chances of finding solutions.

Saving and improving lives takes people, motivation, leadership, and ideas - and a firm conviction that the list can be shortened.

CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS

You've made the decision to become a Chartered Accountant. Now you need to find a firm that will share your commitment to make it happen

We are that firm. You'll find that Arthur Andersen offers the best of all possible worlds. We are one of the world's largest accounting, tax and consulting practices recently associated to the Groupe Mallette Maheu in Québec - with all the resources and opportunities that implies. Yet the office environment is small enough to be a great place to work; to learn; to build your professional career.

Open up a world of opportunity.
